

Not only are you taking away the right to broadcast but you are trying to take away my right to choose. I have the right to choose who I want to listen to and who I want to pay for desired services. I choose satellite radio. I thought only "big brother" took away the right to choose what we pay for. Lock me up now and pay the bill - why should I even earn my own paycheck anymore if I can't choose how to spend it?